NOTE.

The Old Series of THE AMERICAN LAW REGISTER is comprised in nine volumes, from November, 1852, to September, 1861, both inclusive ; and having been printed from type, it is now out of print, and can only be furnished second-hand.

The New Series begins with November, 1861, and has been printed from plates, so that the text can be had in newly-printed volumes. After the Twenty-first Volume, the quality of the paper used was changed, so that second-hand volumes prior to 1883, are not as large and do not correspond with the present volumes. In reprinting, a quality of paper uniform with that in this volume is used, making all volumes of the same size and appearance.

The New Series comprises both the First and Second series: the First from November, 1861, to December, 1887, inclusive ; the Second, from January, 1888, onwards. It was intended by the D. B. Canfield Company to call this Second Series, the Third Series, and the title page of the volume for 1888 was so lettered. But the present publishers have preferred to keep the titles of the Old and New Series, and divide the New Series into First and Second, instead of calling the Old the First, and dividing the New into Second and Third Series.

The First Volume of the Digest covers the period of the Old Series and the first Fourteen Volumes of the New Series : the Second Volume (now in preparation) covers the volumes of the New Series from the Fifteenth to the Twenty-sixth, both inclusive ; and the Third Volume will digest the volumes from the Twenty-seventh on, comprised in the Second Series. By using the last volume of the Digest first, the cross-references will speedily and easily unlock the wealth of legal matter in all the volumes of THE AMERICAN LAW REGISTER.
